

TREKYAARI · CERTIFIED SHERPAS & GUIDES

Ajit Chauhan

Trek Leader

Based in India | 9+ years in the mountains | English, Hindi, Punjabi

Profile

Ajit Chauhan, hails from Shimla, Himachal Pradesh. With a deep love for the mountains, rivers, and nature, he has spent the past 9 years exploring and leading treks across the Himalayas.

He enjoys playing cricket and volleyball, along with farming and cooking. Apart from mountains, he has a special affection for animals, especially dogs, cows, goats, and cats.

For Ajit, mountaineering is more than just a profession; it is a way to connect with nature and people. His dream is to become a good human being and continue learning through his experiences in the mountains.

Certifications

- Basic Mountaineering Course (ABVIMAS) 2018
- Skiing Course (ABVIMAS) 2019 Disaster Management Training (ABVIMAS) 2021

Mountains & treks

- Rupin Pass Trek (4,650 m)
- Buran Ghati Pass Trek (4,572 m)
- Hampta Pass Trek (4,270 m)
- Friendship Peak (5,289 m)
- Sar Pass Trek (4,200 m)
- Bali Pass Trek (4,950 m)
- Pangarchulla Peak (4,593 m)
- Kuari Pass Trek (3,814 m)
- Kedarkantha Trek (3,810 m)
- Dayara Bugyal Trek (3,408 m)
- Har Ki Dun Trek (3,597 m)
- Valley of Flowers & Hemkund Sahib Trek (4,329 m)

Achievements

- 9 years of professional experience in Himalayan trekking and mountain leadership.
- Specialized in managing challenging mountain routes and high-altitude trekking operations.
- Trained in Basic Mountaineering, Skiing, and Disaster Management from ABVIMAS.