

TREKYAARI · CERTIFIED SHERPAS & GUIDES

Sourav Chandra

Trek Leader

Based in India | 6+ years in the mountains | Hindi

Profile

Sourav Chandra is a passionate adventure enthusiast from Pithoragarh, Uttarakhand, with 6 years of experience in Himalayan trekking. His love for mountains and outdoor activities inspired him to build a career in adventure tourism.

Over the years, he has led several popular Himalayan treks, including Everest Base Camp in Nepal, Kashmir Great Lakes, Kedarkantha, Hampta Pass, Sar Pass, Panchachuli Base Camp and Khaliya Top.

He has completed his Basic Mountaineering Course (BMC) in Manali and received additional training in disaster management, river rafting and paragliding. He is also a Red Cross volunteer with practical experience in low-altitude gliding.

With his outdoor experience and passion for adventure, Sourav believes in teamwork, responsible trekking and ensuring the safety of every trekker. His goal is to create meaningful mountain experiences and inspire more people to explore the Himalayas.

Certifications

- Red Cross Volunteer - 2019
- Low Altitude Guide Course - 2021
- Disaster Management Course - 2022
- Paragliding Training – P1 & P2 - 2024
- Basic Mountaineering Course (ABVIMAS) 2024

Mountains & treks

- Hampta Pass Trek (4297 mt)
- Sar Pass Trek (4200 mt)
- Kedarkantha Trek (3810 mt)
- Kashmir Great Lakes Trek (4220 mt)
- Panchachuli Base Camp (4260 mt)
- Khaliya Top (3500 mt)
- Chopta Chandrashila Trek (3682 mt)
- Everest Base Camp (5545 mt)

Achievements

-

Successfully completed the Basic Mountaineering Course (BMC).

- Gained 6 years of practical experience in Himalayan trekking.
- Led multiple trekking groups across popular Himalayan destinations.
- Completed additional training in disaster management, river rafting and paragliding.
- Developed practical skills in outdoor leadership and adventure activities.