

TREKYAARI · CERTIFIED SHERPAS & GUIDES

Zaid Ahmed

Trek Leader

Based in India | 3+ years in the mountains | English, Hindi

Profile

Zaid Ahmed is an adventure professional with hands-on experience in leading high-altitude treks across Uttarakhand, Himachal Pradesh and Sikkim. As a Trek Leader at TrekYaari, he focuses on route navigation, acclimatization, campsite management and trekker safety.

He has completed both Basic and Advanced Mountaineering Courses, developing technical skills in rock climbing, snow and ice craft, rope systems, glacier travel, self-arrest and mountain rescue techniques.

With a strong passion for the mountains and outdoor adventures, Zaid aims to deliver safe, well-managed and memorable trekking experiences while encouraging more people to explore the Himalayas.

Certifications

- BMC - HMI(Himalayan Mountaineering Institute) 2026
- AMC - JIM&WS (Jawahar Institute of Mountaineering and Winter Sports)2026

Mountains & treks

- Thajiwas Glacier II (2800 mt)
- Beas Kund Trek (3700 mt)
- Kedarkantha Trek (3810 mt)
- Kuari Pass trek (3814 mt)
- Brahmatal Trek (3810 mt)
- Hampta Pass Trek (4297 mt)
- Sar Pass Trek (4200 mt)
- Rupin Pass Trek (4650 mt)
- Goechala Trek (4600 mt)
- Friendship Peak (5343 mt)
- Mount Renok (5030 mt)
- Mount Machoi II (5130 mt)

Achievements

- Successfully completed Basic and Advanced Mountaineering Courses.
- Gained technical training in rock climbing, snow and ice craft, and glacier travel.
- Developed practical experience in high-altitude trekking and mountain leadership.

- Gained experience in route navigation, trekker safety and mountain rescue techniques.